

Case Study 2

During the field visit, a Peer Educator meets some community members who tell her about a police raid that occurred the previous night when she was away. Some of the women were arrested while they were sleeping. The PE realizes that such raids have become a regular feature at the hotspot.

Discuss:

- Is this a common situation faced by community members?
- How is this currently handled at the field level?

Case Study 3

During the interaction with a community member, a Peer Educator realizes that the community member is tense as last night a local goonda of the area forcefully had sex with her without using a condom. This goonda has been doing this with many other sex workers in the area.
